

STOCKHOLM VOICES

NEXT ALBUM RELEASE

NEW HORIZON

Stockholm Voices is a vocal powerhouse jazz quartet with a swinging band. With one foot in the lush soil of jazz, the other in the Nordic midsummer night, the singers offer melodious voicings at a world class level.

In March 2023 the singers release their new album - "New Horizon" - a tribute to the fantastic music composed by Sir Paul McCartney during his long career, from the Beatles days until today.

"We were looking for a material that allowed us the freedom to explore and develop our sound. The deeper we delved into McCartney's music, the more our love for his lyrics and melodies grew. The result is something that feels personal and new to us."

It is a new day, a new chapter, a "New Horizon"! Meet a dynamic group that swings like a Big Band. Stockholm Voices - a Vocal Powerhouse.
